7 Day Indicator Hangtime Label

Fraser, MI December 21, 2018 - Healthmark is pleased to announce the new the 7 Day Time Indicator Hangtime Label to its Endoscopy product line.

Designed as a visual reminder for healthcare workers, the 7 Day Indicator Hangtime Label features a 7-day elapsed time indicator adhered to a green 8.5 x 2.5 inch self-looping label.

To activate the indicator simply press the blister on the strip, and upon activation a safe dye migrates along a seven-day display run-out window, which shows elapsed time. No preconditioning is required, there are no moving parts, and no power source is required.
